Fermentation takes place in new fine grain American and French oak casks. Aging for 24 months in the barrels with its lees that are stirred periodically (battonage). The barrels spend two winters outside the winery in the open air.

A further 24 months maturing in the bottle before being released.

Tasting notes: pale golden colour, remarkable tears. Aniseed-flavoured, fine wood, balsamic and honey notes, glacé dried peaches. Complex flavor, peach compote, smooth and diverse sensations of Wood. Soft on the palate, expressing freshness, wide volumen and unctuousness. Passing through, lingering, fine and elegant.
